FINGERPRINT ANALYSIS REPORT

CR-059-2019-A

A bombing took place at the Central Reserve Bank on May 23, 2019. This office assigned Forensic Technician, Taryne Chatman, M.S.F.S., to conduct a crime scene investigation, which he did that day. On May 23, 2019, Mr. Chatman collected evidence, including a bomb fragment. Located on the bomb fragment was a latent fingerprint (CR-059-2019-A). An analysis of three individuals was performed by Mr. Chatman on a scanned digital composite of CR059-2019-A, which was labeled CR-059-2019-A(1).

This method of fingerprint analysis has been widely used by major laboratories around the nation and has been used to garner convictions in hundreds of trials. While relatively novel compared to other methods of latent fingerprint analysis, digital composite comparisons have a proven success rate of 97.5%. The fingerprint digital composite comparison analysis found a 99% likelihood that CR-059-2019-A was made by Alex Franklin.

After Mr. Chatman performed the fingerprint analysis, he prepared this report, which was confirmed and certified by Department Head Pritika Sheshadri, M.D., PhD., and Federal Bureau Crime Scene Analysis Deputy Director Dalton Jones, M.D., PhD., on August 7, 2019. Throughout our investigation, the evidence was kept in the FBI evidence locker. This report is being filed in the in the FBI Crime Scene Analysis Office.

We swear, under penalty of perjury, that the forgoing is true and correct.

FINGERPRINT ANALYSIS SECTION DEPUTY DIRECTOR DALTON JONES, M.D. PH.D,

AFFIRMATION

DALTON JONES, M.D. Ph.D, affirms that:

- 1. My name is Dalton Jones, M.D., Ph.D., and I am the Deputy Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation Crime Scene Analysis Office (CSAO) in Washington, D.C.
- 2. FBI Director James Comey appointed me to this position in December of 2013, and I have held the position from 2013 to present.
- 3. The CSAO is not considered an investigatory laboratory, however, we often collect evidence, which we test and analyze, for the FBI and other law enforcement agencies from around the world.
- 4. My duties as the Deputy Director are as follows: I oversee the transfer, testing, and analysis, performed by our forensic technicians, of evidence recovered from crime scenes. After the evidence is tested and analyzed, the forensic technician prepares a report of his/her findings, which is submitted to a department head for certification (confirmation of the technician's methodology and the accuracy of her/his findings). Upon being certified, the report is submitted to me for final approval, after which time, the evidence is returned to the FBI evidence locker or, if we are working with an outside agency, Pursuant to my statutory duty, I am the custodian of reports that the CSAO forensic analysts are required to prepare, and I keep the original reports at the CSAO.
- 5. This Affirmation is being submitted in relation to a bombing which took place on May 23, 2019, at the Central Reserve Bank, on land that was partially government owned.
- 6. The CSAO personally handled the crime scene investigation and, as part of that investigation, a CSAO forensic technician collected evidence, including a bomb fragment.
- 7. After collecting that evidence from the crime scene, the CSAO followed all of the procedures set forth above. Specifically, the CSAO forensic technician, Taryne Chatman, M.S.F.S., located and analyzed a fingerprint that he found on the bomb fragment and prepared a report of his findings, which was submitted to his department head for confirmation. Once confirmed, it was submitted to me, approved, and the evidence was returned to the FBI evidence locker and the report filed in our office.
- 8. The original report is kept in the CSAO file room. I have attached a true and accurate copy to this report to this Affirmation.
- 9. I swear, under penalty of perjury, that the forgoing Affirmation is true, accurate and complete to the best of my knowledge.

Taryne	Chatman

I, WIMBERLY D. TAYLOR, do hereby make the following statement on May 23, 2019, to Special Agent Reagan Lewin, who I know to be an FBI Agent. I know I may have an attorney present, and I do not have to make any statement, nor incriminate myself in any manner. I make this statement voluntary, of my own free will, knowing that such a statement could later be used against me in any court of law, and I declare this statement is made without any coercion, benefit offer of benefit, favor or offer of favor, leniency or offer of leniency, by any persons whatsoever.

I've already been verbally interviewed by the SCPD and the FBI and now I've been asked to write a statement. I work at the Central New York Reserve Bank in Solvay, New York. I was working on May 22, 2019, the day before the bombing of the Central Reserve Bank. I've been a bank teller for 5 years and this year I was promoted to the position of Assistant to the Branch Manager. In addition to my responsibilities as a bank teller, as the Assistant to the Branch Manager, I get to be the branch's safety officer, run the monthly teller department meetings, and handle branch shut down procedures at the end of every day. We check that all the customers are out of the building and collect and count all the money from each teller's station. If one cent is missing, no one leaves until we account for it. Security usually leaves as soon as the customers are out of the building. The Janitors arrive at 6: 00 p.m. I let them into the building before I leave for the night. The janitors are supposed to start on the ground floor, then work their way up the building's 9 floors throughout the night. Thankfully, they were out of the building at the time of the explosion. I have no idea who would set off a bomb at the bank. We pride ourselves on our customer satisfaction. Police have asked me a lot about my last few customers on May 22, 2019, but as I told them, I can't recall anything out of the ordinary. Nothing sticks out. My last customer was Alex Franklin. Alex Franklin is a regular visitor to the bank, who sometimes comes in with Alex's dad, but not exclusively. Alex came in and made a deposit into Alex's account. Alex was calm and collected, and actually made a funny remark about going out to enjoy the sunshine at the lake. Alex did seem a little jumpy, and was really clutching their bag, like keeping it very close to the chest. While at the teller window, Alex also looked back at the door a few times and texted. The texting thing is so annoying. I handed Alex a pen to sign the deposit slip, but I had to hold it out for like 25 seconds because Alex was distracted on the phone. Anyway, Alex ended the deposit with me and went towards the restroom. Alex's dad walked in maybe a few seconds after and headed toward the restrooms. I couldn't see that area. Because it was the end of the day, I started breaking down my station for the day. A few minutes later, I recall seeing Alex chatting with the guards by the door and Alex's dad was bent over near the desk closest to the vault. Annie Cote, one of our loan officers sits there. I asked Alex's dad if he needed help, I mean he's pretty old, but he quickly said no, dropped a pendant on the floor, and walked toward the exit. They left and I didn't think anything was out of the ordinary about what happened. I hope this helps you guys figure out what happened. END

I affirm, under penalty of perjury, that I have carefully reviewed the above statement to determine whether the information is true and correct, and whether I had any additional information relevant to the matters therein. I hereby affirm, under penalty of perjury, that the statement is accurate and I have no information relevant to the matters discussed other than what is discussed in this statement. Everything was covered and nothing was left out.

Signed on May 23, 2019, in Syracuse, New York.

Cursum Perficio! Now is the time to confess. Now is the time to reveal the truth and so that those that follow will see and believe and know what the enemy seeks to destroy.

I am Baylor Rizwald, a disciple of Raphael O'Connor.

I am ready to leave this world because my legacy is complete. A legacy of defiance, hardship, and justice; a legacy of righting wrongs in this world. I am no longer afraid to confess. I have fought the capitalistic forces of the world in every way I can. Raphael has been an inspiration but everything I have done; I have done of my own free will and my own ambition. I am proud of what I did.

The Covenant has never been about control. I know. I was one of the founding members and the only reason I left was because Raphael only wanted to use words; I believe in using force. The Covenant has always been about realizing the power that each and every one of us has to wage war against the enemies of liberty. Raphael Enlighted me and I set out to use my military training to strike back at the system that empowers the wicked in our world.

I took part in the following revolutionary acts; the attack on Angola, the Kuddish Affair, the Wakanda bombing, and the Central Reserve Bank bombing.

How fitting that my greatest bomb, the Iris, would be my last. Over my career I have worked for radicals from every political spectrum. Because in the end regardless of what we call our enemy, we are all fighting the same thing; oppression. A Bellum Internecinum. Bellum Omnium Omnes.

Raphael is the most important man in history. He is giving and special. He has never tried to take anyone's power; he tries to free the power we hold inside. He freed me. Mind. Body and Soul. I love him. I lost him when I set out to change the world but everything changed. He called me in January of 2019. He told me he had a plan; a plan for me to reach my full potential. I knew it was my chance to do more than just build a bomb; he said it was a chance for us to rekindle our passion. I thought that meant we'd get back together...but then Alex stepped out the car to come pick me up and I knew things would never be the same.

I hate Alex Franklin; that manipulative, conniving Alex found a way to gain power over Raphael. Alex influenced and controlled him. I thought I was coming back to be Raphael's partner, but instead I was just an object he could use whenever Alex wouldn't have sex with him and he was horny. I believed in bombing the Central Reserve Bank, but not for the reasons he did. He did it for Alex. I did it to get back at the Government. Raphael wasn't a real believer in the Covenant anymore; he only believed in Alex. He let Alex pick when the bomb would go off; Alex decided to bomb it when no one would get hurt. Alex named the bomb I DESIGNED, the Iris. I had to beg for scraps of his affection like a dog, cause I as never going to be his precious Alex.

Raphael wouldn't even let me go with him to detonate the bomb because Alex wanted to watch. It made me so happy when he promised me he'd be the only one to actually detonate it. That still meant it could be something special between us.

But to hear now after everything Alex and Raphael are using the Stockholm Syndrome ruse... that was supposed to be Raphael and MY fail safe plan! Now I'm just supposed to die in prison? No. No. We were all soldiers for the Covenant. We were all aware what we were doing and why. And Alex Franklin was no one's slave. Alex relished in the power. I am at peace knowing the war we waged was for something. I am at peace knowing that the world will know the truth about the power of the Covenant. We were Raphael's victims but we were not his captives, we are the liberated.

Omnia mors aequat!
