

Professor Robert Ashford

Syracuse University College of Law

Dineen Hall 426

Syracuse University

O: 315.443.1111

M: 315.491.4888

E: rhashford@aol.com

Inclusive Capitalism: Events and References for the 2021-2022 Academic Year
(All SU Events at Whitman School of Management Room 001)

PLANNED EVENTS FOR 2021-2022 ACADEMIC YEAR

1. Economics, Inclusive Capitalism, and Democracy

Introductory Seminars: (At Syracuse University - In Person and Virtual)

Friday, Oct. 15, 2021, twice offered: noon - 2 p.m. & 6 - 8 p.m. ET

Friday, Oct. 22, 2021, noon - 2 p.m. ET

Advanced Seminars: (At Syracuse University - In Person and Virtual)

Friday, Oct. 15, 2021, 2:30 - 4:30 p.m.

Friday, Oct. 22, 2021, 6 - 8 p.m. ET

2. Inter-Collegiate Conference on Teaching the Principles of Inclusive Capitalism in Key Undergraduate Courses Throughout the Curriculum.

Friday - Saturday, Dec. 3-4, 2021, noon to 6 p.m. In-Person and virtual participation by professors of economics and other disciplines from Assumption College, Eckerd College, Rutgers University, University of South Florida, Syracuse University, and Virginia Tech.

3. Annual Meeting of the Association of American Law Schools (AALS) Section on Socio-Economics:

Sunday, Jan. 9, 2022, 4:15 - 6:00 p.m. (virtual)

Session Title: The Fuller-Employment Promise of Broadening Capital Acquisition with Its Future Income: Plausibly True and Important? Or an Economic Illusion?"

Distinguished Professors of Economics offer critiques of Inclusive Capitalism

4. Annual Meeting of the Society of Socio-Economists (SoS)

Monday, Jan.10, 2022: noon - 6 p.m. ET (virtual)

Part of this Meeting provides a follow-up session to the AALS Jan. 9, 2022, program on Inclusive Capitalism (January 10, 2 - 4 p.m. ET).

READINGS AND LINKS ON INCLUSIVE CAPITALISM

Introductory Reading

1. “Professor Ashford’s Inclusive Capitalism Gains International Support” by Martin Walls
2. “Every Man a Capitalist,” by David Cay Johnston
3. Letter from Professors of Economics in Support of Inclusive Capitalism
4. Letter from Dr. Danielle Taana Smith, Professor, Department of African American Studies, and Director, Renée Crown University Honors Program, Syracuse University
Calling for teaching of the principles of Inclusive Capitalism in key undergraduate courses throughout the curriculum of Syracuse University and elsewhere.
5. Letter from Donald MacNaughton L’68, Member, Syracuse University Board of Trustees
Written in support of the importance of teaching the principles of Inclusive Capitalism.
6. OVERVIEW ARTICLE: “Broadening Capital Acquisition with the Earnings of Capital as a Means of Sustainable Growth and Environmental Sustainability,” The European Financial Review, pp 70-74, (Oct/Nov 2012). Co-authored with Ralph P. Hall and Nicholas A. Ashford.
For some people, this article is difficult reading. People may prefer the recorded presentation set forth below.
7. VIDEO: On Inclusive Capitalism by Robert Ashford to Rutgers University Conference on Employee Ownership (2021)
This is a long presentation, but playback is still intelligible if played at a 1.5x speed.

Advanced Reading

1. “Universal Basic Income and Inclusive Capitalism: Consequences for Sustainability,” Sustainability, 2019, Vol. 11, 4481, by Ralph P. Hall, Robert Ashford, Nicholas A. Ashford, and Johan Arango-Quiroga:
This article explores two related issues relevant to universal basic income and sustainability that are rarely discussed: 1) The need to harmonize the need for sustainable of income for poor and 2) the importance of including the principles of Inclusive Capitalism to supplement labor and redistributed income needed for ecological and economic sustainability.
2. “Economics, Democracy, and the Distribution of Capital Ownership,” 40 Forum for Social-Economics, 361 (2011), by Robert Ashford.
3. “Enhancing Poor and Middle-Class Earning Capacity With Stock Acquisition Mortgage Loans” by Robert Ashford and Demetri Kantarelis.
4. “Beyond Austerity and Stimulus: Democratizing Capital Acquisition with the Earnings of Capital as a Means to Sustainable Growth,” 36 Journal of Post-Keynesian Economics 179-205 (2013-2014)