

SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY

THE UNIVERSITY BOOKSTORE

Dear Student,

Congratulations on your admission to Syracuse University College of Law and best wishes for a successful academic year.

As a first year law student, we are encouraging you to use our website for all your course material needs. We know that your time is valuable, therefore we make every effort to have the books available as soon as you come to campus. Day one. Our dedicated staff has set aside your Orientation Week to help you get your books fast and worry free. Time may be allocated in your schedule during your Orientation Program for text pick up.

The College of Law will provide you with your final Fall class schedule when you arrive for Orientation. As a first year College of Law student you will have the ability to view your schedule on MySlice. By clicking on the Textbook Information link in MySlice, you will access the Bookstore web site where textbook information provided by your instructors is available under Books.

For payment ease, the University Bookstore offers a Bookstore Charge account. For terms and conditions and to apply for a Bookstore Charge account, download the Bookstore Retail Installment Agreement on our website. Once you have completed the Retail Installment Agreement please return it to the University Bookstore, Attn: Business Office, 303 University Place, Syracuse, New York, 13244- 2020. The Bookstore also accepts Visa, MasterCard, Discover, American Express, personal checks, and cash for purchases. Sales tax is not charged on textbooks required by instructors.

We look forward to serving you over the coming years, and wish you the best at Syracuse University.

Go Orange!

Sincerely,

Roger C. Hailstork,
Director

Alyssa A. Auer,
Course Materials Manager
