

Diversity Internships/Fellowships

Class of 2023 (1Ls):

ACTIVE FELLOWSHIPS/INTERNSHIPS:

- Minority Corporate Counsel Association (dozens of opportunities, resources and potential scholarships!)
- New York State Bar Association - Health Law Section (deadline 12/7) - Jobs tab
  - The Diversity Summer Fellowship in Health Law plans to place a law student in an 8-week summer fellowship with a healthcare attorney or facility in New York City.
  - Class of 2022/2023
- Judicial Intern Opportunity Program (“JIOP”) (deadline 1/10/21) - Jobs tab (“employer” = American Bar Association Section of Litigation)
  - Program details & diversity eligibility
  - Class of 2022/2023
- Fish & Richardson 2021 1L Diversity Fellowship Program (priority deadline 12/30) - Jobs tab
  - Candidates must contribute meaningfully to diversity and inclusion through their involvements in law school or other community efforts and initiatives; may include being a member of a racial/ethnic group that has been historically underrepresented in the legal profession, or identifying as a person with disabilities, openly LGBTQ, and/or a military veteran; and have a technical background and sincere interest in intellectual property law at Fish & Richardson

OTHER OPPORTUNITIES OFFERED IN THE PAST/COMING SOON!

- New York State Bar Association: Kenneth G. Standard Diversity Internship Program
  - Former host companies include but are not limited to:
    - TakeRoot Justice (formerly known as Urban Justice Center)
    - Disability Rights of NY
    - Salesforce
    - Pepsi Co.
    - Unilever
- Sonia & Celina Sotomayor Judicial Internship Program
- Native American Congressional Internship: Udall Foundation
- Ward Greenberg Heller & Reidy 1L Scholar Program
- Bond, Schoeneck & King 1L Diversity Clerkship Program - The M. Catherine Richardson Clerkship Program
- Latino Judges Association Summer Internship Program
- Monroe County Bar Association (MCBA): Rochester Legal 1L Diversity Program

- This program is co-sponsored by the MCBA (through its Diversity Committee), the Rochester Black Bar Association, and the Greater Rochester Association for Women Attorneys.
- The program aims to increase diversity in the legal profession in the Rochester area by attracting qualified first-year law students from under-represented groups within the legal profession to work in paid positions with Rochester area law firms and other legal employers.
- Live document where opportunities will be added as they become available

Class of 2022 (2Ls):

ACTIVE FELLOWSHIPS/INTERNSHIPS:

- Minority Corporate Counsel Association (dozens of opportunities, resources and potential scholarships!)
- New York State Bar Association - Health Law Section (deadline 12/7) - Jobs tab
  - The Diversity Summer Fellowship in Health Law plans to place a law student in an 8-week summer fellowship with a healthcare attorney or facility in New York City.
  - Class of 2022/2023
- Judicial Intern Opportunity Program (“JIOP”) (deadline 1/10/21) - Jobs tab (“employer” = American Bar Association Section of Litigation)
  - Program details & diversity eligibility
  - Class of 2022/2023

OTHER OPPORTUNITIES OFFERED IN THE PAST/COMING SOON!

- New York State Bar Association: Kenneth G. Standard Diversity Internship Program
  - Past host companies include:
    - TakeRoot Justice (formerly known as Urban Justice Center)
    - Disability Rights of NY
    - Salesforce
    - Pepsi Co.
    - Unilever
- Sonia & Celina Sotomayor Judicial Internship Program
- Native American Congressional Internship: Udall Foundation
- Latino Judges Association Summer Internship Program
- Live document where opportunities will be added as they become available

Tip: it is easier to find diversity opportunities in Symplicity (jobs tab), when you filter by “Position Type”, “Diversity Opportunities”.