Break

4:20 - 5:30 PM The ‘Fuller-Employment’ Consequences of Broadening Capital Acquisition with Its Future Earnings and Their effect on Corporate and Attorney Fiduciary Duties?

This session will consider the effect on fiduciary duties (corporate and attorney) that may be raised by the following “principle of fuller employment”:
A broader distribution of capital acquisition rational with the earnings of capital creates the rational expectation of more broadly distributed discretionary capital income in future years to people with a higher propensity to consume and therefore the rational incentive for more credit-worthy investment in labor and capital in earlier years.

Panelists: Robert Ashford (Syracuse) Moderator
David Bieri (Virginia Tech), Peter Hammschmidt (Eckerd)
Demetri Kanterelis Assumption), Deirdre McCloskey (Illinois - Chicago)
